

SPECTATOR CODE OF CONDUCT

- Whilst at the stadium, if you experience COVID-19 symptoms please contact a member of staff immediately who will be able to advise.
 - Guests are expected to remain seated, consume alcohol in a responsible manner and not engage in abusive language.
 - We will allocate guests a seat on arrival. Guests will remain in the section designated to them, only moving when using the toilet facilities.
 - Customers cannot move between designated areas and are always to follow social distancing measures, this always includes wearing a face mask, except for when sat at your table. Proof of exception will be required from guests not wearing face masks walking around.
 - We will operate with table service for food, beverages and our tote facilities. Customers are not permitted to approach the bars or fast food area.
 - We would prefer payments to be made via card for food and beverages. Tote betting facilities are cash only - Stay alert and stay safe.
 - Social distancing measures have been put in place at the stadium one-way systems, reduced capacity & hand sanitation areas are available. Customers are always to follow the one-way direction.
 - Only food and drink purchased on the premises to be consumed in the stadium.
 - Crayford Greyhound Stadium reserves the right to conduct bags searches on entry of the stadium.
- Bags to be made available for security on arrival. Only bring bags to the stadium if necessary.
- All booking details will be retained for 21 days in line with government advice on track and trace.
 - In the event of an emergency, guests are expected to follow staff directions regarding facility operations and emergency response procedures.
 - Guests can park in our car park at their own risk, Crayford Greyhound Stadium does not accept liability for any accidents, damage or losses.
 - A breach of social distancing and stadium rules may result in ejection from the track without a refund.
 - Crayford Greyhound Stadium management reserves the right to deny entry at any time.
 - Before arriving at the stadium customers will be required to read their booking confirmation form as it is important this is understood before entering the stadium.

Thank you for your co-operation. Management Team at Crayford Stadium